

SOUTHPOINT
FELLOWSHIP

SERMON EVALUATION

THEOLOGY

- The preacher clearly set the context of the passage.
- The sermon revealed the main point of the text.
- The preacher clearly preached Jesus from the text.
- The sermon revealed how God is at work in the text.

Strongly Disagree	Disagree	Neutral	Agree	Strongly Agree
1	2	3	4	5
1	2	3	4	5
1	2	3	4	5
1	2	3	4	5

APPLICATION

- The sermon was gospel-centered.
- The goal was to get people face-to-face with God, rather than merely instruct.
- Christ and His finished work were applied as the practical solution to any problem.
- The central idea or "hook" was gripping.
- The speaker anticipated audience hopes, problems, questions, and dealt with them.
- The preacher made clear and helpful application of the text to various types of people.
- I would have wanted my non-Christian friends to hear.

1	2	3	4	5
1	2	3	4	5
1	2	3	4	5
1	2	3	4	5
1	2	3	4	5
1	2	3	4	5

PRESENTATION

- The preacher balanced warmth, love, and humility with force, power, and authority.
- The preacher did not seem too stuck in notes and made good eye contact.
- The preacher had dynamic and appropriate voice inflection.
- The preacher's body language enhanced the sermon and was not distracting.

1	2	3	4	5
1	2	3	4	5
1	2	3	4	5
1	2	3	4	5

THREE THINGS TO KEEP:

- 1.
- 2.
- 3.

THREE THINGS TO THROW AWAY:

- 1.
- 2.
- 3.

OTHER COMMENTS:

PREACHER:

EVALUATOR: